Philadelphia Nov. 23. 1779

Dear Sir

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The bearer of this is the Baron de Kalb[illegible] whom I spoke to you of at the State House. He is a Stranger with all the appearance of a Gentleman, and has honorable Credentials with him, and your favorable notice of him will I hope be recompenced on his part by an attention to deserve it. He has some thoughts of applying to Congress for a Captaincy of Marines but I have advised him to delay it for a few days till he shall have an opportunity of making himself known to some of the Members, and your advice to him on that Subject will be a favor done to your Obt. humble Servt

Thomas Paine
